The text is for question 8 to 12

Dear Susan,

It feels like such a long time since the last time I saw you. I know it's only been several weeks since I saw you. So far my summer has been great!

I spend all my weekends at the beach. I am getting a nice tan and you can no longer say I am paler than you. I have been playing lots of volleyball, surfing and building a nice collection of sea shells. Just this past week-end I took second place in a sandcastle building contest!

On the weekdays I work. I drive an ice cream truck around and sell ice cream to the kids. It is so cool. It is a combination of the two things I love most, ice cream and kids. The pay isn't too great but I love the job so much.

I hope the summer's been going well for you, too. There's only a month and a half left in summer vacation and after that it's back to school. Would you like to meet up some time before school starts?

Your friend,
Signature
P.S. John Austin.

The text is for question 13-18!

One evening last week, my wife and I were sitting quietly at home. Suddenly we heard a loud bang. I supposed that the old lady in the flat above ours was moving the furniture. My wife was afraid that the noise would wake the baby. A moment later, we heard someone calling for help. We ran upstairs. The old lady's door was shut but I could see smoke coming through the letter box and under the door and smelled something burning." Call the fire brigade ." I shouted to my wife.

I banged on the door and she appeared. "I was having a bath," she said," when the water heater in the kitchen blew up". I took her down stairs to our flat. Smoke was pouring out of the kitchen and the heater was in flames. Just then I heard a fire engine arriving outside and the heavy footsteps of the firemen on the stairs I." It's in here," I shouted."

When I got back to our flat, my wife was making the old lady a cup of tea. Soon afterwards, the fire chief came in to ask a few questions. It turned out that the fire was not very serious and the firemen were already putting it out. When they left, my wife went up with the old lady to help her clean up the mess. When she returned, my wife remarked : "It's all right now. Nothing was damaged except the water heater. But wasn't it lucky that baby slept through the noise?"

She took the teacups into the kitchen and I heard her scream and the cups crashed onto the floor. When I got there, water dripping from the ceiling and forming a pool on the floor. The baby woke up at least and began to cry.
